Surgut: a decade of progress.
Why you should visit.

Surgut is a relatively small city compared to other cities in the country, but it stays very modern. Over the past decade this city has grown slowly, and in my opinion it has now reached the perfect size. It isn't too big, but everything in a smaller area compared to other cities, and isn't too small, which makes moving around it very pleasant. It has parks with squirrels, a theme park and relaxing saunas. It is known that people who can't cook buy nutrition packs, but what if you want to try something fancy? Then you should visit local restaurants that also have meals of all kinds.

This city is not only good for visiting, it's good to live in. It has everything you'll ever need, all houses come with integrated home security software and have a subway for easier travel. Schools here also teach students the most important subjects such as programming, maths languages and even has driving lessons. There are a variety of vehicles, but the most popular amongst people are e-bikes, bikes with ~~electric~~ electronic motors, they are as easy to ride as a bicycle and <sup>can be</sup> as fast as a car. I hope you consider ~~going~~ visiting Surgut, and move into this beautiful city.
